

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

APR 8 1927

FALL PLANTING GUIDE

HARDY HILL GROWN

PLANTS AND BULBS

IRIS ACRESMolalla, Oregon

All bulbs and plants in this list may be planted from early fall through October and November, or until ground freezes, but never in the spring.

We prepay postage and guarantee safe arrival where cash accompanies order. Any complaint must be made at once upon receipt of plants. No C. O. D. shipments.

HYACINTHS

Big bulbs for finest results in pots or outdoor plantings. Each, 15c; doz. $1.75.

City of Haarlem—Golden yellow. Extra large exhibition variety.

Grand Maitre—Deep porcelain blue with contrasting dark stem. Large.

Lady Derby—Delicate rose-pink. Fine spike.

L'Esperance—Dark claret. Very showy.

L'Innocence—Pure white. Large truss. Best all-round white.

Roi Des Belges (King of Belgium)—Fine deep scarlet. Keeps its color better than most reds.

NARCISSUS

PRICES quoted are per dozen. Single bulbs may be had for one-tenth the dozen price. We can furnish many other varieties in small quantities. Write for prices on special sorts desired.

Alba Plena Odorata—Pure white flower, shaped much like the gardenia. Exquisite fragrance. Also known as the double Poeticus. The latest narcissus to bloom, usually being ready for Mother's Day. 75c

Ariadne—Daintiest of narcissus. Pure white petals and saucer-shaped cup of ivory. Frilled. $1.00

Conspicuus—Rich yellow with short cup rimmed vivid red. A favorite for cutting, lasting unusually well in water. 85c

Duchess of Westminster—Big, starry flowers with long petals of pure white and slender cup of soft canary, tinged orange, changing to white. Always attracts attention. $1.00

Elvira—Flowers in clusters. Pure white flowers of heavy substance with yellow eye. Blooms late and long. $1.25

Irene—A cluster-flower of pale yellow with orange eye. 8 or 9 flowers to a stem. $1.25

Jonquils—The old fashioned favorite with small golden-yellow flowers in clusters. Richly fragrant. Lovely with grape hyacinths. 60c

King Alfred—The king of yellow daffodils. Tall, stately flower of golden-yellow, the immense trumpet deeply frilled. $3.00

Lucifer—Broad white petals; short cup of intense orange-red. Striking. $1.25

Silver Phoenix—Large, fluffy, rose-like flowers of creamy-white. 85c

White Lady—Round, overlapping petals of white and broad, frilled cup of citron. Eucharis shaped. One of the most popular. 85c

TULIPS, TULIPS, GAY AS A BUTTERFLY'S WING

Prices quoted are for one doz. bulbs. Single bulbs may be had for one-tenth the dozen price.

SINGLE EARLY

These make a fine display of color very early in the spring and are the best to use when formal beds are being planted. Use one variety in a bed for the best effect.

Belle Alliance—Brilliant scarlet. Large, sweet-scented flower. 75c

Fred Moore—Deep apricot-orange. Very early. 75c

Keizerkroon—Scarlet, heavily bordered rich yellow. Large. $1.00

Lady Boreel—Pure white. Large exhibition variety. 75c

Prince of Austria—Bright orange-vermilion. Large flower of beautiful form. Very fragrant. 75c

Prosperity—Rose pink. A lovely tulip for the flower market. 75c

DOUBLE EARLY

These bloom a little later and last much longer than the singles. They are big, fluffy, peony-like flowers. Plant in beds of one color.

Boule De Neige—Large, full flower of pure white. 75c

La Matador—Dazzling scarlet. 75c

Tea Rose—Saffron yellow, with salmon flush. A distinct and lovely shade, reminding one of a tea rose. 75c

SINGLE COTTAGE OR MAY-FLOWERING

Tall, graceful flowers, given a quaint charm by the long, slender buds and recurved petals. Lovely in borders or among shrubs. Include many lovely yellows, shades which the Darwins lack.

Ponton d'Or—A round, golden-yellow flower set off by black anthers. 65c
Ellen Willmott—Creamy primrose yellow. Sweetly fragrant. Long, slender buds. Late. 60c

Fairy Queen—Rosy heliotrope, margined amber-yellow. Popular. 65c

Fulgens—Dark Scarlet. Long, recurved petals. Tall. 65c

Inglescomb Yellow—Large, goblet-shaped flower of clear canary. One of the latest to bloom, often being in its prime for Memorial Day. This and Bouton d'Or are in shape more like the Darwins and are much used with them. 60c

John Ruskin—A medley of soft shades—apricot, rose, mauve, edged pale yellow. Very attractive. 75c

La Merveille—Orange-scarlet, flushed rose. Large. Sweet-scented. 65c

Moonlight—Oval shaped flower of soft yellow. Extra quality. 65c

Mrs. Moon—Deep golden yellow. Long pointed flower with recurving petals. One of the most admired. 75c

Picotée—Pure white with distinct edging of rose pink which gradually suffuses the whole flower. Daintiest of all. 50c

Snowdon—Fine pure white of splendid form. Late. 65c

DOUBLE COTTAGE

Blue Celeste (Blue Flag)—Immense, handsome flower of violet blue. 75c

Washington—Light bronze, shaded apricot. Unique. 75c

DARWINS

Large, cup-shaped flowers notable for their stately habit and strikingly rich colors. Best planted among shrubbery or in long borders of blending shades.

Baronne De La Tonnaye—Rose-pink, margined blush. A faultless flower of largest size. 65c

Blue Aimable (New)—Soft lilac-blue. Large. 75c

Clara Butt—Soft salmon-rose. One of the best pink tulips. 75c

Dream—Lilac, flushed deep heliotrope. A beautiful flower. 75c

Farncombe Sanders—Brilliant scarlet. Large size and perfect shape. Best all-round red tulip. 75c

Harry Veitch—Rich mahogany. 65c

La Tulipe Noire—The nearest black, with velvety sheen. Large and tall. 75c

Mme. Krelage—Rose-pink, margined silvery rose. Very large. 75c

Painted Lady—White with lilac flush and contrasting dark stem. Chaste. 65c

Rev. Ewbank—Rich heliotrope-lilac with paler edge. Distinct. 65c.

Valentine—Velvety violet-purple. Largest and tallest of Darwins. 85c

Wedding Veil—Silvery gray. Especially good in bud. 60c

White Queen—White, with pink flush. 65c

PARROT TULIPS

Their feathered and fringed petals and gay colorings make them the most gorgeous of garden blooms.

Fine Mixture—Includes rich reds and yellow and striped sorts. Nothing gayer could be imagined. 60c

BREEDER TULIPS

They specialize in the dull, sombre art shades, and rich and unusual blends. Assorted—Including shades of bronze, violet, purple, gold, copper, mahogany and heliotrope. 75c

CROCUS

Plant closely in masses of one color for finest effect. Doz. 30c; 100 for $2.25
Cloth of Gold—Golden yellow, striped brown.
Cloth of Silver—Silvery white, striped purple.
King of The White—Extra large and free.
Mammoth Yellow—Very large.
Maximillian—Lovely sky blue.
Furpurpea Grandiflora—Deep glossy purple.

ANEMONES (Spring-Flowering)

Giant French Or Poppy Flowered—Much showier and stronger growing than ordinary strains. Includes a wonderful variety of colors. Doz. 60c
St. Brigid's—A popular Irish strain giving graceful flowers in a wide variety of shades. Doz. 60c
Doubles—A mixture of scarlet, blue and rose. Extra quality. Doz. 75c

SCILLAS

Campanulata Alba—Tall, pure white. Doz. 65c
Campanulata Rosea—Tall, rose colored. Doz. 75c
Nutans—Bluebells in nodding spikes. Doz. 65c

PUSCHKINIA (Striped Squill)

Blue-white flowers with darker stripe through the center of each petal. Bloom for six weeks in early spring. Treat the same as crocus in open ground or pots. Doz. 75c

DOUBLE PEONIES

Felix Crousse—Vivid, ruby red. Large, globular flowers. Each, 90c
Glorie Chas. Gombault—Charming tri-colored flower in rose, cream and amber. Lemon fragrance. Crown type. Each, 90c
Modele De Perfection—Immense flowers in rich pink, shading from silvery to deep rose. Pyramid shape. Dwarf but sturdy grower. 90c
Tenuifolia Flora Plena (Fern Leaf Peony)—Double scarlet flowers nestling among the fine-cut foliage in earliest spring. Distinct from all other peonies. Each, $1.00

SINGLE PEONIES

The single peonies are tall growers and carry their great, floppy flowers on long stems. With their golden centers and broad petals some resemble huge poppies, while others remind one of the water lily. Charmingly graceful flowers which should be better known.

Pink—We can furnish blush pink, deep pink or rose pink. Each, 75c
Red—A rich, deep shade. Long stemmed. Very showy. Each, 75c
White—Albiflora, The Bride—Finest of single white peonies. Open blush and pass to pure white with yellow centers. At their best the blooms are big as dinner plates. Exquisite fragrance. Each, $1.00

We have other varieties in small quantities and will be glad to quote prices on special sorts desired.

IRIS ACRES, MOLALLA, OREGON